If the news received that Mrs. Shipley's relatives are safe in Galveston is correct then our Bisbee people have been fortunate in the preservation of their people in Galveston from the fate that has befallen so many unfortunate in the ill-fated southern city. So far we have not been informed of the death of any relative of a resident of this town in the the great storm.

HOBSON, the great naval hero, appears to be anxious to gain an accession of notoriety in another field, he has spoken in a manner detracting from the honor of Admiral Dewey at Manila. It is a pity to see a young man, and a gallant sailor, place himself in a position that is provocative of expressions of contempt on the part of the public. The fault of the people seems to be to idolize a hero in a manner which is calculated to make both the givers and recipients of that idolatry look extremely foolish.

REGISTERING is very slow at Naco, the citizens of that prosperous town, while upholding the necessity of supporting the schools, consider it a disgrace to their citizenship to have their right of voting clogged with a proviso that is illegal and contrary to the right of the people of this country to vote unhampered by payment or condition. However, the best way is to register and vote after all, for at the polls will be found the panacea for all political evils we have groaned under for so long.

THE robbery of the Bisbee drug store last Sunday night proves the fact that there are professional thieves operating in this town, and it behooves the townspeople to secure their houses against the forcible entry of these burglars to the best of their ability. It is easy for the robbers to watch their opportunity when the police are out of the way and force an entrance. It is impossible for the night watchman to be on hand all the time. He has an extent of ground to cover, and must give his attention to other parts of the town that require watching in the cause of law and order. If an example could be made of these night birds of prey, it would act as a warning to others who are inclined to follow this doubtful profession. But the people find it difficult to pass their time watching on their own account and the stores are left unprotected at night by their owners.

Charles Harris begs to announce that he is continuing his business of tailoring and repairing at short notice at his residence in Tombstone canyon this side of the Castle Rock. That he is now in a position to make clothes and to repair and clean them at the cheapest rates and invites the attention of the public to his fine stock of fall and winter goods.

A BATHER'S PREDICAMENT.

Remains in Water Too Long and Has to Walk Home in His Bathing Suit.

Frank McKee, the theatrical manager, was not in a cheerful frame of mind the other evening, as, clad in a bathing suit, he walked half a mile from the beach at Sea Gate to his home. He was inveighing against bathing masters and especially against one of the calling, Henry Weinzer. He also mentioned in his sotto voce, John Burns, assistant to Weinzer.

Certain persons who met him asked him if he had lost a bet. Instead of replying he made remarks about the management of bathing houses at Sea Gate which were construed to be severely critical.

Mr. McKee as soon as he dressed went back to the bathing house in search of his valuables, which he said he had deposited with the bathing master. He could get no trace of either Weinzer or Burns. Mr. McKee remained in the water longer than he intended, and when he returned the bathing houses were closed.

He tried to break into the office in order to get the key to his individual bathhouse. He was unable to do so, and was compelled to go to his home without any other adornment than his bathing suit. He was worried about his watch and jewelry, worth $900, and $122 which he had given Weinzer for safekeeping.
